

Lyndonville.

Frank Knight's Daughter Meets with Accident—Local and Society News.

The little daughter of Frank Knight was badly injured last week while playing around the Webster sugar house by a sap boiler. Bled with sap falling onto her. Both legs were broken besides other injuries. She was taken to Brightlook hospital, where it is thought she will make a complete recovery.

At the meeting of the Mothers' Circle of the Union club Thursday evening, a very interesting paper, on "Why America Needs Good Mothers," was given by Mrs. Harry Bradford.

The annual Easter apron sale and supper at the Universalist church was held Thursday afternoon and evening with a good attendance. The tables were very prettily decorated, and a bountiful supper served.

H. L. Parker received a visit last week from his sisters, Mrs. Harry Green and Mrs. W. M. Silsby of Littleton. On their return they were accompanied by Mrs. Parker's sister, Mrs. Carr, who visited a few days at her brother's in Whitefield.

The Lyndon Union club will visit the Agricultural school buildings tomorrow, meeting at the dormitory at 2.30 p. m. There will be a lecture in the institute chapel following by Prof. Merrill, on the aims and work of the school. The gentlemen are invited to join in this visit to our new institution.

Prof. Wilkinson gave a talk Thursday afternoon to the Village Improvement society on the condition of our shade trees and the work necessary to be done upon them.

W. C. Way has sold his milk route to E. J. Wilkie, who took possession April 16.

Carl Hopkins has gone to work on Frank Powers' farm.

Mrs. Martin Daniels pleasantly entertained the Needlecraft club last Friday.

Mrs. C. B. Hutchinson was the hostess of the Christmas club last week Wednesday at a very pleasant gathering.

Miss Bessie Hutchinson has been working in Mrs. Bigelow's shop during her millinery opening.

Miss Esther Spaulding has finished work in the Citizens' Telephone office and Sadie Powers takes her place.

Pearl and Geneva Wilmont have been spending a few days at home from their schools at Stanstead, P. Q., and at Northfield, Mass.

Charles Lyon has moved to Lyndon Center.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Waterman have returned from their wedding trip, and are rooming in Ide's block.

Mrs. Dora Lane has gone to St. Johnsbury to live with her sister, Mrs. George Harrington.

There was no service at the Methodist church Sunday the pastor being absent. A fine Easter service was held at the Congregational church with special music and lavish floral decorations. At the Easter service in the Universalist church, the pastor preached a very fine sermon on "Immortality." The flowers and music were both beautiful. Communion service was held, the little son of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Parker was christened and two joined the church. Special Easter services were held at St. Peter's and St. Elizabeth's churches.

Mrs. Dvinell of Glover is with her son, Dr. Fred E. Dvinell.

The Mission Band of the Methodist church held a five and ten cent social with Miss Clara Eastman, Friday evening.

A. G. Gilbert has moved into the boarding house at Mt. Hunger.

A. Gerry Blodgett spent a few days at John Cunningham's last week assisting in the sugaring.

Principal W. H. Closser has been very ill for a few days with fear of an abscess in his head so that his directors have been obliged to close his room for a time.

Richard MacLaughlin has been at home for a short vacation from St. Lawrence University, Canton, N. Y. Mrs. Henry Mower is at Newport for a short time.

Dexter Brewer has gone to Boston to take examinations preparatory to entering the navy.

Mrs. H. M. Rider and Mrs. Frank Rider from Fitch Bay, P. Q., are stopping in town, called by the illness of Mrs. Harry White.

Fred Carr has gone to Alberta, Canada, to work.

Miss Annie Creighton of Parkersburg, West Virginia, is a guest of her college classmate, Miss Thelma Powers.

H. E. Towne of Springfield, recently visited his mother and sister here.

Miss Katherine Vail has been ill at the home of her aunt, Mrs. Applegate in Brooklyn.

John Norris has begun work on his post office block, strengthening the foundation and building it two stories higher to accommodate the business of the Dairy Medicine Co.

Juniper Branch Lodge, No. 9, D. of R., held a masquerade ball in Music Hall on Tuesday evening. The attendance was good, and the occasion was a very pleasant one. Refreshments were served in the hall.

Mrs. Grace Finney White, who has been seriously ill for about ten days with tubercular meningitis, remains in a very critical condition, yet not wholly hopeless as was feared at one time.

Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Howe are not to move into the Allen block, but will occupy the tenement where Harry Silsby now lives; Dr. Smith is soon to move into the Charles street house, and John Nash's family have rented the Leach house on Prospect street; Gerald Mills who lives there, expects to move to the Center.

A special service for the Knights of Pythias and the Masonic orders was held in the Universalist church Sunday afternoon at five o'clock.

Burns Gray's brother from Franklin, N. H., has been visiting here.

A regular meeting of the Caledonia Medical society was held at Cable Hall, Lyndonville, April 11 with a good attendance. Some business was transacted and a paper on "Intestinal Obstruction" was given by Dr. A. L. Leonard of Lyndon. Following this meeting a banquet was served at Hotel Lyndon.

At Danville.

Program For Next Grange Meeting—Officers of Masonic Lodge and Eastern Star.

The next regular grange meeting will be held Tuesday evening, April 25. The following program will be given: Piano solo, Edna Hunt; recitation, Blanche Heath; paper—"Ancient and Modern Warfare Compared," by George Fisher; news from Mexico; question—"Could the Expenditure of our Navy be Curtailed Without Damage or Injury to Anyone?" speakers, H. B. Morrill, M. M. Stocker, J. Durant Dole and B. F. Ainsworth.

At the Methodist church Sunday morning service was conducted by Dr. C. E. Libbey which was appropriate to Easter. A potted plant was given each child who attended Sunday school.

Mr. Tucker of Boston was a visitor at M. M. Stocker's last Thursday. Archibald Gillis who has spent the winter at Keene, N. H., has returned to his home here.

Senator Morse and wife expect to leave this week for Old Orchard, Me., to take possession of their property there. They will be accompanied by Miss Bert M. Danforth who will remain with them for the summer.

Mrs. M. E. Moore went to Burlington Monday morning to enter the Mary Fletcher hospital for treatment.

Howard Albee of Hardwick visited at Marshall Stocker's last week.

Mrs. Ernest Holbrook of St. Johnsbury visited her aunt, Mrs. C. E. Libbey, last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Marshall M. Stocker visited Mrs. Charles Bell at East Hardwick and friends at Greensboro last week.

Lydon La Frana was a business visitor at Stockbridge last week.

Hamilton Morrill went to Boston last Friday on business and returned Saturday night.

Mrs. Van Ness Worthen was called to Newport Wednesday to attend the funeral of her brother.

Remember the social at the Methodist church this Wednesday evening.

Miss Eva Clough of Cabot was a visitor at C. H. Wilson's last week.

Mrs. D. R. Brown of Lyndonville is visiting Mrs. W. C. Cheever.

Mrs. Harry Davis is confined to the house by illness.

Mrs. Lewis Pero and daughter, Idella, who have been visiting their father, H. M. Danforth for two weeks, have returned to their home at Taunton, Mass.

Clinton Cheever entertained 12 of his young friends last Saturday afternoon from two until five in honor of his 13th birthday. Supper was served.

Harold and Frank Steady spent last week with their aunt, Mrs. Clifford Sanborn at St. Johnsbury.

Miss Kate Currier of New York is spending her Easter vacation here with her father, John Currier.

Mrs. O. E. Hale visited friends at St. Johnsbury last week.

Mrs. B. U. Wells of West Danville visited Mrs. Frank Crane last Wednesday and Thursday.

Mrs. George Garvin visited her sister, Mrs. Horace Gilliland, at Inwood last week.

Mrs. Elizabeth Steele and Mrs. Fred Allison of St. Johnsbury called on friends here the first of last week.

Mrs. Fannie Green has finished work for Mrs. P. H. McDonald and is visiting friends at St. Johnsbury.

Mrs. E. H. Smith visited her sister, Mrs. Clifford Sanborn, at St. Johnsbury the first of the week.

Mrs. H. L. Pache is visiting friends and relatives at Burlington.

Mrs. Harry Blodgett of St. Johnsbury visited Mrs. Asa Wesson several days last week.

Mrs. David Corbett visited her aunt, Mrs. Walter Green, at St. Johnsbury several days last week.

Good results always follow the use of Foley Kidney Pills. They give prompt relief in all cases of kidney and bladder disorders. Try them, C. C. Bingham.

SUTTON.

Charles Aldrich and wife visited in Swiftwater, N. H., their former home, the past week.

But very little sugar has been made as yet and the prospect for a large amount is not the best.

The next grange meeting is to be Saturday evening the 2nd, when the third and fourth degrees will be conferred upon a class of six to be followed by the regular harvest supper.

Miss Ethel Chapman has been at home from Auburndale, Mass., where she is teaching, the past week.

Mrs. A. N. Chandler who has been at Waterbury Center on account of sickness in her sister's family the past week, returned Sunday night.

Gordon Davis returned to his school in St. Johnsbury last week.

Frank Drew who has been at Barton with friends for some weeks has returned home.

Mrs. Charles McKown who has been quite ill with pneumonia is improving.

Mrs. S. M. Bartlett who has been sick is some better and gaining slowly.

Percy Still who has been visiting his father at Byron Bundy's has returned to his work at Compton, N. H.

The town clerk has received "The Vermont Digest Annotated 1789-1910" in three volumes to which all have access to use as they wish.

Alpine Lodge, I. O. O. F., with the Rebekah Lodge are to observe the 92nd anniversary of the institution of the order at their Hall at West Burke, Monday evening, the 24th. Odd Fellows and their families are invited to attend.

Miss Madge Burnham returns to her school at Lyndon Center this week where she has taught for several years past.

It cured the cough as well as the choking and gagging spells, and got well in a short time. Foley's Honey and Tar Compound has many times saved us much trouble and we are never without it in the house." C. C. Bingham.

WELLS RIVER.

Officers Elected By The Masons and Eastern Star.

At the annual meeting April 10 of Puka Lodge, F. and A. M., the following officers were elected: R. A. Davidson, W. M.; S. E. Clark, S. W.; Fred Stevens, J. W.; George E. Randall, secretary; Samuel Hutchins, treasurer. These with the appointed officers were installed the same evening by W. H. Buck, Past W. M., and who has served as secretary of the lodge for nearly 20 years.

At the annual O. E. S. meeting April 12 the following officers were re-elected and appointed: W. M., Mrs. Clara E. Clark; W. P. W. H. Buck; A. M., Mrs. Ella D. Buck; sec., George E. Randall; treas., Mrs. Mary B. Goodwin; conductress, Mrs. Libby B. Wheeler; Adah, Mrs. Kate D. Lee; Ruth, Mrs. Miriam Stevens; Esther, Mrs. Harriet Sheldon; Electa, Mrs. Sarah J. Hutchins; organist, Mrs. Adie Carpenter; sentinel, Mr. Sheldon. Mrs. Cora Myers was elected A. C. and Mrs. Flora E. Goss was appointed Martha, Mrs. Randall, warder, Miss Linda George, chaplain and Mrs. Deming, marshal. Installation occurred the same evening, Mrs. Goodwin as installing officer.

Kimball Marshall has been in Lowell, Mass., the past week visiting his son, Frank.

John Peach returned to Wilmington last week.

At the spring service Easter Sunday the following united with the church on confession of faith: Misses Lottie Marshall, Julia Rutledge, Annie Miller, Lizzie Warden, Ella George and Katherine Peach; Nelson Bailey and two sons, Dumont and Russell Bailey, Fern and Scott Hazelton, Carl Powers and Carl Leonard, and two, Mrs. Helen Bailey and Mrs. Alice Hutchins by letter.

There will be a social in the church parlors Friday. Supper from 5.30 to 7.30 followed by an entertainment.

Mr. and Mrs. Pile of Wolcott were guests of Mr. and Mrs. George Wheeler one day last week.

Miss Bertha George is at home from Ryegate.

Malcolm Buck is at a hospital in Springfield, Mass., for treatment.

Mrs. Deming spent a day in St. Johnsbury last week.

Mrs. Sheldon was one of the Henderson excursion party to Washington two weeks ago.

Miss Awdie, a trained nurse and formerly matron at the Cottage hospital, has come from Lisbon and is established at Dr. Lee's.

Misses Nellie Bailey and Genevieve Fellows returned to Middlebury Monday and Katherine Graves to Burlington.

WEST DANVILLE.

Mrs. Nancy Hunt has gone to St. Johnsbury Center to work for Fred Woods.

Archie Page is working for Clayton Farrington.

Austin Goss was at home over Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Fisher and family of Danville spent Sunday at G. E. Farrington's.

Mrs. B. U. Wells and Harold spent a few days last week at Frank Crane's at Danville.

Elmer Lewis and family have moved here from Canaan.

Perley Pressey spent Sunday with his sister, Mrs. Fred Woods in St. Johnsbury Center.

John Armstrong has gone to Lunenburg where he will teach the spring term of school.

Mrs. Herbert Ellis has returned to Clayton Farrington's.

Mr. and Mrs. B. U. Wells were the guests of Carl Durgin of Cabot Sunday.

Mrs. Lizzie Daniel of Walden spent Sunday at Albert Daniel's.

Emery Clifford has commenced work in the stone shed for Goss & Conley.

On April 6 at Brookline, Mass., a son, Arthur Henry, was born to Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Brickett, grandson to Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Brickett of this place.

The bridge builders are building a new trestle at the lower end of the village.

Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Ayer and family and Mr. and Mrs. George Gile and family were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harley Swasey Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Woods spent Sunday in Walden.

EAST BARNET.

Murray Lindsay visited his father last week Monday.

Mrs. Wild was very sick last week but is now gaining.

Miles Nelson returned to Burlington Tuesday after spending his Easter vacation at home.

Mrs. Charles Harvey received word last week that her brother, Leslie Glenn in Albany, N. Y., underwent an operation for appendicitis last Thursday. His sister, Mrs. Fred Moore goes this week to visit him.

George Nelson invited the people of East Barnet to his camp to a sugaring off Saturday afternoon. About 40 went and a lot more would like to have gone. Many thanks are due him for the treat he gives the people here every year to the annual sugaring off.

Mrs. Charles Harvey and son, Olin, visited Mrs. Nettie Lindsay Saturday.

Mae Gilliland came home from her school in Chelsea, Mass., Saturday to spend her Easter vacation.

Arthur Bandy has been sick for the past week and not able to attend school.

E. Newman, R. B. Gannell and Bert Gairbraith were callers on William Lindsay Sunday.

Rev. W. C. Clark preached a fine Easter sermon here Sunday afternoon. There was extra music for the day.

Helen Sylvester from St. Johnsbury was the guest of Marjorie Nelson Saturday.

Vera Kendall is very sick with membranous croup. Her mother is quite sick too. Mrs. Ada Brown is caring for them.

Two hounds were seen chasing a deer past Charles Harvey's Friday.

Children Cry FOR FLETCHER'S CASTORIA

Concord.

Sunday School Contestants Enjoy a Banquet—Bridge Washed Away.

The Sunday school contest came to a close with a banquet given by the blues to the reds. Nearly 100 sat down to an excellent supper at which corn chowder, cake, coffee, etc., were served. The reds furnished an entertainment that was appreciated by all. The Sunday school doubled its membership in the contest.

The bridge near Gould's Crossing was carried away by high water Saturday night. Harry Currier, who was returning home from St. Johnsbury was the first to discover it, and not until he was about three feet from the river's edge did he notice the bridge was gone.

Miss Alice Bailey of Lancaster, N. H., spent Sunday with her parents, Rev. and Mrs. I. P. Chase.

Mrs. Frank Jock of Concord Corner spent the past week with Mrs. George Howard.

Mrs. Minnie Seavey of Fitzdale was in town Saturday.

Mrs. F. M. Cobligh is ill from grip.

Adah Chapter, No. 39, O. E. S., will hold a special meeting for installation of officers Thursday evening. Refreshments will be served.

Mr. and Mrs. Pile of Wolcott entertained a company from St. Johnsbury at a sugar party Tuesday of last week.

Miss Mary Tetler of Lawrence, Mass., was a guest of Mrs. E. D. Lee part of last week.

Robert Ash moved his family into the tenement in Emanuel Lilliecrap's house.

Mrs. Ira Lewis is stopping with Mrs. S. N. Ford.

Mrs. Martha Cobligh who suffered a stroke of apoplexy recently, remains about the same.

Mrs. Angie Brigham who has been very ill does not gain as rapidly as her friends would wish.

Miss Kathaleen Gray visited friends in town part of last week.

Emma J. West was a guest of Mrs. S. H. Moore of St. Johnsbury Wednesday.

Mrs. E. A. Gray entertained her father, D. H. Wheeler of Hardwick, the past week.

Mrs. George Palmer and daughter, Mildred, of St. Johnsbury visited Mrs. Palmer's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Harvey, the past week.

Mrs. Eva Mullen of South Lunenburg and Mrs. Flora Gresley of North Adams, Mass., were in town Thursday evening to attend the Eastern Star meeting. They were guests of Mr. and Mrs. George Chapman.

Mrs. Wells Quimby of Lyndon was a recent guest of her sister, Mrs. Alvah Beldin. Miss Josie Beldin of St. Johnsbury also spent Sunday at her home here.

Franklin Cobligh of Lyndonville was in town Saturday, called here by the illness of Mrs. Martha Cobligh.

Mrs. Rhoda B. Ripley who has spent the winter with her son, Ned D. Ripley of St. Johnsbury, returned to her home here last week.

Miss Grace Braley, a student at St. Johnsbury Academy, spent Sunday with her grandmother, Mrs. O. D. Cobligh.

A little son came to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Moyle Saturday.

N. D. Ripley of St. Johnsbury was in town Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Woods are receiving congratulations on the birth of a son, April 16.

The Village Improvement society will meet with Mrs. P. A. Brewer next Monday evening.

Rev. A. P. Grint will hold service at the town hall at three o'clock Sunday.

BARNET.

Miss Edith Blair who has spent the winter in Monroe has returned to her work at Gilliland's.

Miss Annie Gilliland is spending a week with her sister, Mrs. Pocock, at Beebe Plain.

Miss Jessie Wilson of Orleans spent Saturday and Sunday with her father, E. O. Wilson at L. E. Gilliland's.

Chester Somers has moved to his farm known as the Horace Gannell place.

Miss Margaret Smith is at home sick with a new disease of the eyes.

The Parker children and Marjorie Clark are sick with the measles.

Rev. Mr. Clark gave a fine Easter sermon last Sunday morning, also the Easter concert by the children was very good.

Mrs. Charlotte Dow went to Monroe, N. H., to her school Monday morning. Mr. Ellen Morrill will keep house for her.

Rev. Mr. Clark will give an illustrated lecture next Sunday evening.

There will be an adjourned business meeting of the W. C. T. U. at the home of Mrs. Nedie Lang Thursday at half past two.

Avery George and wife who have been spending the winter with a daughter in Bradford have returned to their home here.

Mrs. Lowell of Danville is working for Rev. W. C. Clark.

William Hunt has finished work for J. H. Goodrich and will soon start for Calgary, Canada. His wife will accompany him.

Miss Ella Robinson spent last week in Benton, N. H.

Fair Maple Sugar Crop.

George C. Cary, the best authority in Vermont, on maple sugar says that Vermont farmers up to last Saturday had made more sugar than they had a year ago at that time. He thinks there will be about an average crop this season.

In Pennsylvania and Ohio about the average amount was made and there is no indication of a shortage of maple sugar.

CHICHESTER'S PILLS

For Biliousness, Headache, Indigestion, etc.

Take one or two pills after each meal.

Take no other.

Take no other.

Take no other.

Take no other.

Take no other.

Take no other.

Take no other.

Take no other.

Take no other.

Take no other.

Take no other.

Take no other.

Take no other.

Take no other.

Take no other.

Take no other.

Take no other.

Take no other.

Take no other.

Take no other.

Take no other.

Take no other.

Take no other.

Take no other.

Take no